HOW TO USE THIS QUICK-START GUIDE
This brochure is a general overview of DDS program admissions. Please visit dentistry.utah.edu for details, and be sure to speak with your pre-dental advisor.

OUR PROGRAM
The University of Utah offers advanced education in dentistry science and practice. Our combination of technology, world-class instruction and picturesque beauty are unsurpassed. Anywhere.

Collegial Atmosphere
Small class sizes offer an intimate learning environment. Early clinical experiences with award-winning faculty help the U of U School of Dentistry produce distinguished, knowledgeable and compassionate dentists. An inclusive, family-friendly environment fosters the unique intellectual and social fabric you’ll find on campus.

State-of-the-art Facilities
The new Ray & Tye Noorda Oral Health Sciences Building is 80,000 square feet of education, clinic, laboratory and research space. The in-house clinic features more than 80 patient operatories for all aspects of oral health care.

ADMISSIONS CRITERIA
To ensure best fit, we holistically evaluate applicants on the following objective and subjective criteria:

Education: Bachelor’s degree from an accredited United States college or university.

Academics: GPA and DAT scores below reflect averages of current D1 class:
- GPA: 3.58 science; 3.65 cumulative
- DAT: AA = 21; PAT = 21; TS = 21

*Completed by the end of the spring term preceding the fall in which you will begin dental school. Visit dentistry.utah.edu for suggested elective courses.

Job Shadowing: 40 hours (minimum) required
We recommend shadowing at least four different dentists.

Letters of Recommendation: Must submit three letters through AADSAS
- Two letters from science instructors who taught you in a classroom setting and assigned a grade
- One letter from a college/university committee, a non-science instructor, dental professional, employer, supervisor or clergy
- If desired, you may submit an optional fourth letter attesting to character and fitness for dentistry

Other considerations:
- Personal statement (essay)
- Undergraduate research experience
- Quality of pre-professional education
- Community and volunteer service
- Leadership activities and other background information
